My archival post regarding the Cerro Coyote hotel in Costa Rica has generated more leads folks as more local investors in the project that had no clue Abel, Leary and Perret sold the hotel and whom received not a penny back on their investment have sent me bat signals and that does not count the inquiries from those who are still coming to grips with the fact their "friends" Danny Abel and Aaron Broussard fleeced them. So while the news is settling in please meet the new owners of the former Inn at Coyote Mountain:

Bill Duron: Bill is chairman of the Ontario Tourism Marketing Partnership Corporation, agency of the Government of Ontario and serves on the boards of the Friends of the Greenbelt Foundation, Canadian National Sportsmen's Shows and the Advisory Board of Ryerson University's School of Retail Management.

So Bobby Jindal is holding this fundraiser for Billy Nungesser on Tuesday.....

January 16, 2012

tags: Blaine Kern, Jeanette Maier, Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal, Plaquemines Parish President Billy Nungesser, Ryck H. Soto, Senator David "Diaper Dave" Vitter, Soto v Nungesser, The Canal Street Brothelby sop81_1

And folks I hear there is gonna be lots of fun and games over at Blaine Kern's place but before we get to that let's visit with our good friends over at Plaquemines Citizen, who has the invite and letters from Piyush and Nunny on the soiree as we highlight the following comment Plaquemines left here on Slabbed:

I believe this little shin-dig has something to do with a piece of property in Belle Chasse Louisiana that is the subject of a rather heated opposition to a large development headed to Belle Chasse that includes a Super WalMart. Nungesser is doing what he can to push the development, even though the majority of residents in Upper Plaquemines are against it. The Parish has spent loads of money fighting it, and you wouldn't even believe the shenanigans involved. The real story is no one is saying is Jindal's father-in-law is a principal in the company that owns the property. The Court even sealed the documents that reflects the current owners of the property, and the options to purchase the property.

A court in Plaquemines sealing public real estate ownership information? This sounds like Grenta mentality to me folks as Jindy sure has cuddled up extra close to Nunny of late.

Now back to the entertainment. Folks Kern and the other organizers have been somewhat coy on exactly what kind of entertainment will be on tap to regale Nunny and the attendees. But we can make a reasonable guess based on some of what we know in the public record about Nunny and his preferences. Let's start with Jeremy Alford at ambit to get a flavor for what Nunny likes:

In 1997, Nungesser was sued for damages by a man named Ryck H. Soto, who had previously worked for Nungesser's General Marine Leasing. According to the suit, which was filed in Orleans Civil District Court,

Soto alleged that he was “wrongly terminated” after Nungesser allegedly made “sexual advances.” Nungesser denied all the allegations, which included requests for oral sex and “exposing his genitals.” Read more...

The media in Nova Scotia pick up on the Broussard indictment and State Ethics Board Investigation.

January 15, 2012

by sop811

I love local lore and history folks so the story in today's SouthCoast Today on Aaron Broussard's legal troubles and connections to Nova Scotia is right up my alley and ranks as a must read folks. Here is a snippet:

On Februray 28, 1765, less than a month after being chased by the British government in Nova Scotia out of the colony for his murder, mutilation and scalping of hundreds of British subjects, famed Acadian firebrand Joseph Beausoliel Broussard stepped off a ship in New Orleans, where his progeny have multiplied and still reside. One of the most famous of those today is Aaron Broussard, alledgedly one of the most corrupt officials in a notably corrupt region.....

Sop gets a cyber first: Behavioral finance/economics intersects with Slabbed. An Aaron Broussard/Trout Point Lodge Update.

January 15, 2012

tags: Aaron Broussard, Behavioral Finance, Cerro Coyote, Charles Leary, Danny Abel, Inn at Coyote Mountain, Jefferson Parish Political Corruption Scandal, Louisiana Ethics Board, Ralph Fontcuberta Jr., SLAPP, South West Shore Development Authority, Trout Point Lodge v Louisiana Media Company LLC, Trout Point Lodge v Slabbed New Media, Vaughn Perret
by sop81 1

Some of my better received work here on Slabbed deals with the topic of behavioral finance/economics. That said when my curiosity compelled me to enter the laboratory I invariably would go to the Yahoo Finance Boards and issues like Allstate or the pump and dump de jour such as XING.

Cerro Coyote has changed that folks and I want to give everyone a flavor for what I am seeing by communicating with people on this topic. After all this blog is called Slabbed, a sizable portion of our readership was slabbed by Hurricane Katrina not that long ago. Before we get to "the finance" part of behavioral finance we must start with the behavioral. Universally the investors I have heard from share 3 common traits:

1. They were sold a small stake in Cerro Coyote as evidenced by the stock purchase agreement I posted here on Slabbed last year.
2. They have found out via Slabbed the Inn at Coyote Mountain, the major asset of Cerro Coyote has been sold.
3. They have not yet received anything back on their investment.

So what do people feel upon learn such information? The answer lies in the Kübler-Ross model and Wiki does a very good job explaining it:

The Kübler-Ross model, commonly known as The Five Stages of Grief, was a theory first introduced by Elisabeth Kübler-Ross in her 1969 book, On Death and Dying. Read more...

Tater Nuts problems just keep getting worser and worser. A periodic report on Ocean Springs Alderman James Hagan and his mounting legal problems.

January 14, 2012

tags: Mississippi v Hagan, Ocean Springs Alderman James Hagan, Pedophiliaby sop81 1

Well folks, in the past month Hagan has been arrested for getting fresh with a 15 year old girl and having child porn on his city owned notebook computer that he previously had claimed was lost. Today the Sun Herald's Margaret Baker checks in with a civil suit filed against Hagan by the Ameristar Casino Hotel. It seems Hagan overflowed his hotel room bathtub in a major way causing extensive damage to 6 hotel rooms. This snippet from Margaret's story gives a flavor of the tort:

According to Ameristar Casino's complaint, a security official was responding to a report of water seeping under the door of Hagan's sixth-floor room when he found Hagan asleep in the bathtub with the water still running.

"... The water was overflowing onto the floor and into the hallway of the sixth floor and into several rooms (4) ... causing wet carpet ..." with additional water damage suspected in three other fifth-floor rooms. The officer, the report said, repeatedly tried to wake up Hagan. Finally, the report said, Hagan responded, using his foot to turn off the faucet before falling back to sleep.

Folks Tater Nut's legal problems just seem to get worsen and worsen as another of Scott Walker's Ocean Springs GOP running buddies self implodes.

BREAKING: Big D Fazzio gets new lawyers. He is digging deep folks.

January 13, 2012

tags: Garner Services, Jefferson Parish Political Corruption Scandal, River Birch Landfill, USA v Fazzio

by sop81_1

Buddy Lemann does not come cheap folks and he is a top shelf criminal defense lawyer. Today River Birch's Dominick Fazzio ditched the federal public defenders office and brought in Buddy and his son to mount his criminal defense. To borrow some slang from the Slabbed legal team, Lemann is not the type of lawyer that is afraid to try a case. I've found Lemann to be aloof and egotistical in my limited observations of the man plying his trade but he is also possessive of more than enough skins on the wall to make the demeanor stick. Paul Rioux has the skinny for the T-P.

Hiring Lemann means Dominick Fazzio plans on fighting this to the bitter end folks IMHO. While Lemann is a fantastic criminal defense lawyer I do not think he will be able to stop Big D from being crushed by DoJ.

Slabbed solves the mystery on the shores of the Tusket River in Nova Scotia as we reveal the Trout Point connection to the Jefferson Parish political

Corruption Scandal

Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary

I've done more than a few posts on the topic of Trout Point Lodge since it first appeared on the pages of the Times Picayune back in January 2010. I'll be honest and say I still have no clue why the powers that be at the Times Picayune sold out their own reporter and retracted a factually correct story but I've grown accustomed to seeing strange things in the media in New Orleans so I simply accept the "what is" there. In a way this is a simple story that had the twist of a controlling grifter in Vaughn Perret mixed into the middle of the narrative. Vaughn is a literal one trick pony in how he deals with people of making threats and more threats of legal action whenever the PR doesn't go his way. A great way to begin would be to link the Channel 4 story on the ethics complaint made against Aaron Broussard as reported back in January 2010 but I was a stinker to prove the extent to which the NOLA media is compromised on reporting in Jefferson Parish so we must go back on Twitter to August 18 where I teased the girls at Trout Point:

Knowing Charles Leary and/or Vaughn Perret have Eric Paulsen on speed dial I also printed a copy for my records as I was fairly certain WWL would "404" the story as soon as the girls bitched (and they dutifully complied) so it is there we begin with the story Crime watchdog seeks ethics probe into Broussard business dealings: (fair use claimed):

The Metropolitan Crime Commission is asking the Louisiana ethics board to determine if Jefferson Parish president Aaron Broussard has violated the state ethics code.

In a letter to the ethics administration, the Crime Commission questions whether it was proper for Broussard to solicit business for Lagniappe Industries, the insurance firm owned by his former chief administrative officer, Tim Whitmer, and to accept $5,000 for legal work he has acknowledged doing for Lagniappe.

In addition, MCC president Rafael Goyeneche calls for the crime commission to determine if Broussard profited from parish contractors using a vacation lodge the parish president and his wife own in Nova Scotia.

"We're asking the ethics administration to determine if Mr. Broussard enriched himself by inviting or encouraging any of these potential parish vendors to go up there and utilize his property or invest in his property," Goyeneche told Eyewitness News on Thursday.

In a separate matter, since records reveal Broussard has accepted hundreds of state court appointments since 2004 to represent people involved in lawsuits whom the court can't find, Goyeneche questions if Broussard considers his position as parish president a part time job .

"Where he can devote time to a legal practice that not only involves Lagniappe Industries and earning a $5,000 fee over several months and also soliciting business for Lagniappe, but additionally accepting 50 cases that we could find in 2009 in which the court appointed him to represent an absent litigant? He made thousands of dollars doing that," said Goyeneche.

And of course the answer is no. That said Patricia was thinking something along the same lines LOL.
